NEW YORK MARRIAGE LICENSES.

CONTRIBUTED BY ROBERT H. KELBY, Librarian New York Historical Society.

In 1860 the State of New York published a volume containing a list of marriage licenses then on record in the office of the Secretary of State, Albany.

The licenses were issued under the seal of the Prerogative Court, and acted as a dispensation from the proclamation of banns, when it was inconvenient or impossible to comply with the general usage. The information given by the license, and unfortunately not printed in the volume published by the State, consisted of the town of residence and occupation of the parties to the marriage, and the prospective bride was designated as Spinster or Widow as the case might be.

In the fire at the Capitol, March 29, 1911, a number of the original manuscript volumes were saved, but all badly burned.

The following additions and corrections are from 432 original licenses, in the Archives of The New York Historical Society.

The pages mentioned in the additions and corrections refer to the volume published by the State.

ROBERT H. KELBY, LIBRARIAN.
